ELDRIDGE ON TV

Eldridge Cleaver, Minister of Information of the Black Panther Party will appear on BLACK JOURNAL, Thursday, October 2, at 8:30 P.M. on channel 2 (the program will be repeated on Sunday, October 5, at 5:00 P.M.). He is shown speaking to an audience of Algerian students. Eldridge has been in exile since November, 1968, when Ronald Reagan, chief pig of California, had his parole revoked for participation in the Black Panther Party. The interview took place in Algiers at the first Pan-African Cultural Festival in August, 1969.

ANGOLAN STRUGGLE CONTINUES

LUANDA, Angola (INS)--- The people's Movement for the liberation of Angola (MPLA), which has been waging an increasingly successful guerrilla war against the Portuguese colonialists, announced that it shot down another Portuguese military plane near Luanda, the capital city of Angola. MPLA detachments also destroyed a number of oil deposits in the area around the capital.

During the past months the Portuguese have had to withdraw their occupation forces from many of the provincial outposts because they were unable to defend them. Now it appears that not even the large cities are a safe haven for Portuguese imperialism.

Portugal, which is an extremely weak nation, unstable economically and with few military resources of its own, is heavily supplied with weaponry from the NATO countries. Its troops receive training both from South Africa and Israel.

THE PIGS OF BOSTON OINK AGAIN

On September 6, 1969, the pigs of Boston oinked again. Ed Wilson, Larry Half-Kenny, three brothers and a sister were driving in the community at 12:00 P.M. They came to the intersection of Townsend and Warren Streets. The pigs stopped them and said that they had run a red and yellow light but in fact the light was flashing yellow.

With guns drawn, the pigs called wagons and four other pig cars. They asked the brother who was driving the car to show his license and registration. The brother showed them to the pig and the pig tried to keep them. Knowing his rights, the brother kept repeating the pig's badge number. Finally, the pig returned the license and registration for fear of being caused further trouble.

The pigs made the brother stay in the car for half an hour. While the brothers were held there for half an hour, the pigs kept saying that this is the reason why the black community will not cooperate and also why they need more police to keep us "niggers" down. Finally, the pigs let them go.

This is another move by the racist pigs to suppress black people.

COMMUNITY POLITICAL EDUCATION CLASSES

Every Saturday at 2:00 P.M. at the office of the Black Panther Party. We urge all people in the community to attend these classes to discuss the objectives of the Black Panther Party and the political situation in the community, the country, and the world.

For further information on all of these programs, contact the Black Panther Party, at 375 Blue Hill Avenue. 427-9693.

Transportation provided for Free Breakfast Program and Liberation School.

LIBERATION SCHOOL

The Liberation School was formed in order to educate the youth in the community to the truth about their role in history and in changing today's society. The Black Panther Party feels that the traditional school system is not stimulating creativity and open-mindedness in its minority students. We believe that poor people can no longer depend on lying politicians, greedy businessmen and racist pig cops to solve our problems. We must educate our children ourselves and teach them to respect themselves and their people.

Programs at the Liberation School include films, field trips, drawing, writing and singing as a means of educating.

Place: South End House - 48 Rutland St.

Time: Monday thru Friday - 3:30 to 5:00.

FREE MEDICAL CLINIC

In the near future, the Black Panther Party will be sponsoring a Free Medical Clinic. This clinic will function in the interests of the community. It will be a People's Clinic. Every Sunday at 3:00 P.M., we are having meetings concerning the clinic at the Blue Hill Cristian Center, 288 Blue Hill Avenue, Roxbury. We urge everyone to attend these meetings.

FREE OSCAR EARL

On Friday, October 19, Oscar Earl, a well-known community worker, was railroaded into Dorchester Court and placed under a ridiculous ransom (bail) of $250,000 on eight counts of attempted murder; four of them supposedly against Boston pigs (police) who have harassed and threatened to kill Oscar on many occasions. Six niggers were coaxed by the Boston Pig Department to testify in behalf of the fascist pig structure. To testify for these racist dog pigs is a crime against the people. A counter-revolutionary act that cannot be forgiven. Running dogs like this only serve the purpose of those pigs who seek to murder and brutalize black people. The pigs seize every opportunity in their power to undermine the black community by using our own against us.

Greedy businessmen rob our community blind by charging us ridiculous prices, Black Politicians lie to us about new schools, better housing and better health; but care only about more votes for the elections, and those racist dog pigs murder, brutalize and spy on black people; we must draw a clear line of demarcation between our friends and our enemies. So let it be known that the people will deal with those who work in the interest of the pig power structure. Also let it be known that we have arrived at a stage in the struggle where we must call a spade a spade.

A WHITE REVOLUTIONARY SPEAKS

This Spring, in Chicago, a formal alliance was made between the Chicago Chapter of the Black Panther Party, the Young Lords Organization (a Puerto Rican group), and the Young Patriots for the purpose of presenting a united front of poor, oppressed peoples to the Fascist power of Mayor Daley's machine. The Young Patriots were a gang of poor whites from the Appalachian Mountains who are now white revolutionaries with the same analysis of American society as the Panthers. They now strongly support the Panther programs, and are implementing some programs in their own communities such as the Free Breakfast Program. The following speech was given at the United Front Against Fascism Conference in Oakland, California. The speech is reprinted from an issue of the BLACK PANTHER PAPER which was stolen by the F.B.I. Pigs and never reached Boston:

Listen here, I'm gonna say it. Turn off your tape recorders. Listen here, out there motherf---r, FREE HUEY.

We have a message from the people and the message from the people reads: "To you astro-pigs: The moon belongs to the people."

We have another message to PL and that message reads, "PL, and Oakland City Council, Chicago City council and the government of the United States, are all paper pigs."

Now, we have come from Chi town and we come from a monster. And the jaws of the monster in Chicago are grinding up the flesh and spitting out the blood of the poor and oppressed people, the blacks in the Southside, the Westside; the browns in the Northside; and the reds and the yellows; and yes, the white-white oppressed people. You talk about have any white people before ever known what oppression is? Come to uptown Chicago. Five pig cars on a square block. White pigs murdering, brutalizing white brothers. Is it? Is it? We say, we talk to people a lot, and they say, "You hillbillies ain't planning on picking up a gun or anything, are ya? I mean, that one you brought down from Kentucky, or North Carolina." And we say to 'em, "Listen here, why, you know, a gun ain't nothing, you know. A gun on the side of a pig means two things: it means racism and it means capitalism. And the gun on the side of a revolutionary, on the side of the people, means solidarity and socialism. Right on? Now who is here and who out there is gonna let the motherf---r with the gun shootin' capitalism and racism outshoot the people? Who's gonna do it? Who is the racist dog? Let him walk up here and let me bite his head off. Let me get a hold of that son-of-a-b---h and you can keep it out if you want to. And been out Johnny Cash, you know, cause he tells the truth. When I get in front of McClellan, on behalf of the Southern people, I'm gonna bite his head off, and spit it in Nixon's face.

Understand where we're comin' from when we talk about freein' political prisoners. Because when we talk about that, we are talking about concentration camps like Folsom Prison, San Quentin, Cook County Jail in Chicago and Statesville and we're talking about the Chairman of the Black Panther Party in Illinois, my brother, who was sent down the river for 2 to 5 years for supposedly stealing $71 worth of ice-cream. Now, listen here, and I say this, see, because I think we have to deal straight, see and the judge who sent that brother is a nigger.

Free all political prisoners. We said to the city of Chicago, this is what we said to 'em. Mayor Daley declared a war on gangs, you know, so we said, "We didn't know any gang fed 4,000 hungry children a week." And Mayor Daley's talking about "feeding the hungry if he can find them." And the people know they're there because that's the people. We stood up to lame-brained Daley, and we said, "Look here, man, you sent Chairman Fred off on 2 to 5 years and we got together, the Young Lords, the Young Patriots and the Black Panther Party in Illinois we said, 'Now what are we gonna do?'" We said, "We're gonna intensify the struggle, motherf---r." We also said, "If Chairman Fred don't get sent down river, if I get blowed away, or if I don't get blowed away, we still gonna intensify the struggle." So what did Mayor Daley do after shakin' in his boots and oinkin' right on.

Now ya talk about fascism. I'll tell you that since we all been in the Patriots the pigs don't like it. You know that people being fed in uptown Chicago were the southern whites cause they don't want to see any riot in a southern white ghetto. They don't want to see that. You know, that'd wipe that moon shot off the front page, you know. Forget about that moon. It's here.

Since we been in this thing, and really, we've been in it all our lives, coming from the South and comin' from the d--n coal mines, mill towns, and some of them down there ain't even up to capitalism yet. They're still back, way back to feudalism or something, you know. But, a Chicago pig, he has a loud cink, but let me tell you, you know, the people from the south, the white brothers and the black brothers, we've been to a lot of hog killings in our lives and I don't know, but a lot of experience there and

Preacherman, Field Secretary of the Young Patriots

I think about ol' Hammerhead Superpig Hoover. You know, he's old. He's an old pig, man. He's so old, I don't even want to eat them chitterlings out of that motherf---r. F---k it.

Our struggle is beyond comprehension to me sometimes and I felt for a long time and other brothers, in uptown felt that poor whites was (and maybe we felt wrongly, but we felt it) was forgotten, and that certain places we walked there were certain organizations that nobody saw until we met the Illinois Chapter of the Black Panther Party and they met us. And we said, "Let's put that theory into practice about riddin' ourselves of that racism." You see, otherwise, otherwise to us, freeing political prisoners would be hypocrisy. That's what it'd be. We want to stand by our brothers, dig? And, I don't know. I'd even like to say something to church people, I think one of the brothers last night said, "Jesus Christ was a bad motherf---r." Man, we all don't want to go that route, you understand, He laid back and he said, "Put that f---in' nail right there man. That's the People's nail. I'm takin' it." But we've gone beyond it, and all we've got to say from the Young Patriots, where we come from, where we're goin' is to all of you, and thousands of others here and all over the world. All we got to say is "All Power Belongs To The People." Red Power to Sittin' Bull, to Geronimo, Kathy Kiteger in Uptown. And yellow power to Ho Chi Minh and Mao and the National Liberation Front. And Brown Power to Fidel and Che and the Young Lords and La Raza and Tijerina. And Black Power to the Black Panther Party. And white power to the Young Lords and all other white revolutionaries. Whether the pigs or the pig power structure likes it or not, f--- it.
